"No Action Served"
(Now, Don't Be A Couch Believer)

The Lord said: MY Church has gotten lazy and complacent, just sitting around waiting on The Rapture and that's not what I want

"I'm Not Pleased"

"No Action Served": In the context of court proceedings, "no action served" generally means that a case has been terminated or a decision has been made by the court to not proceed with the charges or legal action. It signifies that the prosecutor or the court has decided not to pursue a specific case, either because of insufficient evidence, a decision to drop the charges, or other reasons.

couch po-ta-to: A person who spends little or no time exercising, lots of watching television.

The term "couch potato" refers to a lazy person who spends a lot of time watching TV or otherwise sitting on the couch. It's a descriptive term that compares a person's lack of physical activity to a vegetable, as they are seemingly sedentary and motionless.

Reasons must rejecting laziness: Christians are called to Honor and Glorify God in all we do, and laziness dishonors Him.

Spiritual growth: Laziness can hinder spiritual growth and effectiveness in ministry.

Witnessing to the world: A strong work ethic can be a positive witness to those outside the faith.

The Bible doesn't label laziness as a sin, it does emphasize the importance of diligence and hard work for Christians. Laziness is viewed as a hindrance to honoring God, serving others, and growing spiritually. Believers are encouraged to overcome laziness through prayer, dependence on God, and developing Christ like habits.

(7) This is why God chose me to be a preacher and an apostle of the good news. I am telling the truth. I am not lying. God sent me to teach the Gentiles about faith and truth.

RUACH BREATH

The Hebrew language is based on word pictures and symbols. Each word conveys emotion and experience, not just information. Words in Hebrew often have specific images connected to them, like the one in the book of Isaiah when the prophet writes that God will arrive "like a raging flood tide driven by the breath of the LORD" (Isaiah 59:19, NLT). What an awesome image of God's power and beauty! This verse reminds me of the ocean crashing over rocks on the shore. The ocean is unstoppable and has immense power.

The Hebrew word for "breath" in this verse is ruach, which means "Spirit" and also means "wind." The idea is that the Holy Spirit arrives like a rushing tide. This seems to go against the idea of the Holy Spirit descending on Jesus "like a dove" when He came out of the water during His baptism—or does it? While I had always imagined a dove gently alighting on Jesus in this story, theologian Joan E. Taylor gives a different perspective after encountering a territorial dove on a trip to Jerusalem: "I can verify that a dove coming down on someone with wings flapping is something like a very powerful rush of wind striking one's head." This picture fits with the way the Spirit landed on the disciples like a "rushing wind" after Jesus' resurrection.

Does it matter if the dove descended gently or forcefully? Probably not. But, I like the idea of the Holy Spirit tearing open heaven and swooping down on Jesus with purpose and power! And I like knowing that today, we all have access to this determined Spirit.
